

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Leta Cotton has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Leta Cotton has reached her 85th birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

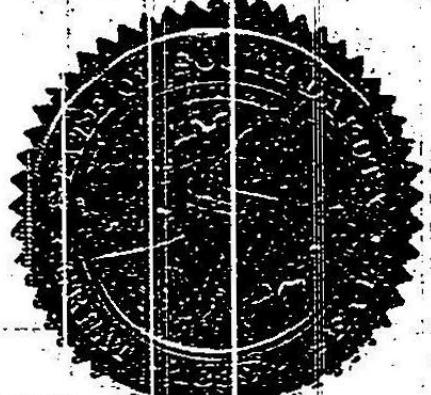

WHEREAS, Leta has given much to South Dakota during her lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Leta on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Leta Cotton's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 15, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing Leta a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE BAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
